

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

9-24-1959

To: Brad Brumley (9/24/59)

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1959). To: Brad Brumley (9/24/59). Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/202>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Sept. 24, 1959

Mr. Brad Brumley
Freed-Hardeman College
Henderson, Tennessee

Dear Brad:

I understand that your suggested dates for the teacher training clinic have been accepted by the Riverdale brethren. Bro. Edwin (Ed) Hartman, the Bible School Director was to have written you today confirming those dates.

You understand, of course, that the Riverdale congregation will be supporting you and Betty, but the Northridge teachers and Bible School Director have been invited to attend and take part. Even though there is a great possibility that I will be moving to Broad St. in Cookeville the first of the year, I am planning to be here for the clinic. Needless to say, with great expectation.

Under the circumstances I still believe that I will be able to appear on the Rector Youth Forum Dec. 22 and 23. Sue doesn't get out of school until the 24th, but I think we will be able to make arrangements.

You may consider this letter as an acceptance of the invitation to come. I am sure I will hear from you at the proper time concerning suggestions to be discussed.

I hope that everything is fine with you, Betty and Susan.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk